

Liturgical Music for the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE HYMN:

All the Ends of the Earth

All the ends of the earth,
All you creatures of the sea,
Lift up your eyes to the wonders of the Lord.
For the Lord of the earth,
The Master of the sea,
Has come with justice for the world.

Break into song at the deeds of the Lord,
The wonders he has done in ev'ry age.

The Lord has made his salvation known,
faithful to his promises of old.
Let the ends of the earth,
let the sea and all it holds make music before our King!

A New Commandment

(John 13:34,35)

A new commandment I give unto you
That you love one another as I have loved you,
That you love one another as I have loved you.

By this shall all men know
that you are my disciples
If you have love one for another.
By this shall all men know
that you are my disciples
If you have love one for another.

DURING COMMUNION:

Prayer of St Francis

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord,
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness, only light,
And where there's sadness, ever joy.
Oh, Master, grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console.
To be understood as to understand.
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
In giving of ourselves that we receive,
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

RECESSIONAL: We Are Called

Come! Live in the light!
Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord!
We are called to be light for the kingdom
To live in the freedom of the city of God!

We are called to act with justice,
We are called to love tenderly,
We are called to serve one another;
To walk humbly with God!

Sing! Sing a new song!
Sing of that great day when all will be one!
God will reign, and we'll walk with each other
As sisters and brothers united in love!

REFLECTION

It was not enough to want to follow Jesus and to be committed to him. Discipleship also demanded the ability to make shifts in understanding in order to recognise what following Jesus required. He did not merely repeat the religious tradition, he re-interpreted it. We too are called to understand the words and deeds of Jesus, but we must understand what they mean for us today. Today we need to make comparable shifts of understanding in order to bring the message of Jesus into conversation with the contemporary world.

Perhaps one of the most exciting and, at the same time, unnerving aspects of our religious tradition is its nonconforming nature. We think that we finally understand the way God is working in our lives and then something happens that seems to turn our understanding inside out. We are told to love our neighbour and when we ask who that might be we are told a story that turns the question around. 'Who is my neighbour?' or 'Whom should I love?' becomes 'Who acts as a neighbour?' or 'Who shows love?'

The same Sunday that we reflect on the paradoxical nature of the ways of God, we are told that the law of God, which appears to be so lofty, is really very close to us, in our mouths and in our hearts. This too is an unusual claim. Following the law results in a way of living that is inspired and informed by love, love of God and love of others, even, and perhaps especially, those whom we are not inclined to love. © Dianne Bergant CSS
