SUNDAY READINGS (Jerusalem Bible—JB):

Wisdom 7:7-11; Ps 89:12-17; Hebrews 4:12-13; Mark 10:17-30.

REFLECTION

This Sunday's readings confront us with the need to make choices in life, choices for God. They also remind us that no significant choice is without its price. However, if we make the right choice, we are assured that we will be richly rewarded.

We all want to be happy in life. We just don't always know which doors to open, and how far to enter them. We need wisdom for that. The more options that are open to us, the more difficult it is to choose, but choose we must. To choose one option is to relinquish the others. The young man in the gospel wanted eternal life. Surely there is nothing more worthy than that. However, the price he was asked to pay was more than he had expected, and he went away saddened. To choose is to face the consequences of the word of God, and sometimes this is as sharp as a two-edged sword.

One of the mysteries of faith is the incomprehensible generosity of God. We choose wisdom instead of all of the good things of the world, and we receive these good things along with wisdom itself. We are asked to relinquish all of the things that we value, and we get them back a hundredfold. We are invited to take a step into the unknown. We are told that we will not fall. However, we are never sure of this until we take the step and discover that we have not fallen. God demands so much, but gives so much more.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD: CLOW

"Let the little children come to me," said Jesus

This was our message from last week's gospel reading – how Jesus loves the little children and encourages them to always come to Him. We also spoke how adults need to become more 'child-like' in their relationship with God and be more trusting, forgiving, and full of joy! We concluded the liturgy with a puzzle activity of the scene where Jesus is welcoming the children and blessing them.

2024 CATHOLIC MISSION

This mission will occur on the weekend of 19 and 20 October.

In Mongolia, Chuluunbaatar suffered a life-altering injury while trying to rescue a submerged vehicle, leaving him unable to work and reliant on scarce support services for basic needs. Without shelter and food, Chuluunbaatar faces the real risk of freezing to death.

Resources are limited, but the Church in Mongolia is working hard to provide essential services to people in need.

This World Mission Month, we invite you to extend your generosity to help enhance these vital services. Your support can make a significant difference to the lives of many, offering hope and tangible assistance to individuals like Chuluunbaatar.
