GOSPEL REFLECTION

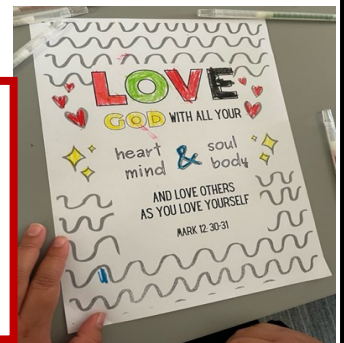

The willingness to give all that one has is the central theme of today's readings. They offer us three models. Jesus is the ultimate example of heroic generosity. He first offered himself as expiation for our sin. Now, as the eternal high priest, he stands before God as our mediator, pleading on our behalf, bringing salvation to those who eagerly await him. It is interesting to note that the other two models of selfless giving are widows, individuals who are doubly disadvantaged by the patriarchal societies of which they are members. Their generosity is religiously inspired, and it comes from women who had the least material possessions to give. This kind of giving requires that we reach deep into ourselves and almost strip ourselves of our hold on life, and that we do this for religious reasons. The giving that is pictured in today's readings is nothing less than heroic generosity.

God will not be outdone in generosity. Sometimes we become the beneficiaries of obvious blessing, as was the case in the story of the woman of Zarephath who was granted a year's supply of flour and oil. At other times, we simply continue living life as usual, like the woman in the temple who was unaware of the commendation that Jesus had given her. The truly generous do not look for reward. They carry out their responsibilities and place the rest in God's hands.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD: CLOW

Last Sunday the message was to love God with everything that we are, and to love others as we love ourselves. We discussed ways to love others with our hearts – eg be kind. Our minds – eg thinking about what others would like to do. Our bodies – eg helping others and, our souls – eg, praying for others. The children then coloured a worksheet with the scripture verse from the Gospel reading.

Please note:

Children's Liturgy will be taking a break over the Christmas School Holidays. The last Children's Liturgy will be on the 8/12/24 which is also the date for the combined Children's Liturgy, Altar and DPO servers Christmas Party. Children's Liturgy will re-commence on the 2/02/25

FROM THE SACRED HEART PRIMARY SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I have been appointed as a Senior Leader – School Progress and Performance for 2025. In this role, I will be responsible for supporting a cluster of BCE schools and Principals by focusing on key areas such as Catholic identity, teaching practices, school management and compliance.

This appointment brings mixed emotions, as I deeply cherish my role within the wonderful Sacred Heart community, which holds a special place for many. I am profoundly grateful and honoured to have led this school community, gaining valuable insights from students, parents, parishioners, and staff associated with the school.

Kind regards,

Chris

Chris Thomas

CHRISTMAS CAROLS:

It is that time of year again when we start thinking and singing Christmas Carols. The Sacred Heart Primary School will hold their Christmas Carols this year in the Seniors Oval (located on the other side of the Presbytery) on Tuesday 26 November at 5:30. It will start with a sausage sizzle. Everyone is welcome.

Watch this space for parking information.

NOVEMBER

The month of November is when we make time to remember those who have passed before us. We pray for those whom we have loved and we pray for those who have loved us. We also remember those who have no one to remember them. There are tealight candles in the gathering room at the entrance of the Sacred Heart Church if you wish to light a candle for loved ones. At Sacred Heart Booval, we hold special sung services on Fridays for these people. The times are as follows:

NOVEMBER SPECIAL SERVICES

Sung Prayers for the Dead at 8:45 on Fridays in November
3rd Friday 15.11.24: Prayers for deceased Spouses and Children
4th Friday 22.11.24: Prayers for deceased Brothers and Sisters
5th Friday 29.11.24: Prayers for deceased Relatives and Friends

NOVEMBER MASS OFFERINGS

Envelopes will remain available at the entrance of both churches for those who wish to remember deceased relatives and friends. Please write (or print) the names clearly on the back of the envelopes. Envelopes can be placed in the collection plate.

POPE FRANCIS NOVEMBER PRAYER INTENTION

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE LOST A CHILD

NOVEMBER

“Let us pray that all parents who mourn the loss of a son or daughter find support in their community, and may receive peace of heart from the Spirit of Consolation”

RESOURCES

If you have ordered “Break Open the Word” “Daily Mass Book” or “HOPE Reigns”, (the Advent 25-day reflection booklet) they are now available in the office to pay and or collect.
