SUNDAY READINGS (Jerusalem Bible—JB):

Daniel 12:1-3; Ps 15:5, 8-11; Hebrews 10:11-14, 18; Mark 13:24-32

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Although this is not the last Sunday of the liturgical year, the major theme found in the readings is the end of time. The events that will usher in and will take place during this time are described in apocalyptic terms. The struggles of life will culminate in a massive cosmic confrontation between the forces of good and those of evil. This last battle will be universal in scope, just like the first primordial conflict between chaos and God.

In some way, all of today's readings state that good will finally prevail over evil. In the last days Michael, the angelic warrior of God, will rise up. In the epistle, Christ is pictured seated triumphantly at the right hand of God with his enemies under his foot, a sign of conquest. Finally, in the gospel, the Son of Man, the mysterious figure from apocalyptic literature, comes in the clouds with great power and glory. All of these images are apocalyptic; each of them is quite hopeful.

We read these stories at the close of the liturgical year, because we are coming to the conclusion of our yearly telling of the story of salvation. However, apocalyptic images are timely whenever we find ourselves in the throes of the battle with evil and it appears that we will succumb. These forms will remind us that good will be able to withstand evil. From this we will conclude that we need only trust in God.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD: CLOW

Last Sunday's message was about giving from the heart, just like the poor woman who gave what might have been the smallest amount into the poor box, but it was a very precious gift as it was all that she had. We don't need lots of money to give from the heart. We can give of our time by helping others at home, school or our neighbourhood, share what we have, whether it be food clothes or toys, say kind things about others and make them feel special. None of these things cost us money but can be a blessing to so many.

CHRISTMAS PARTY BREAK-UP FOR CHILDREN'S LITURGY, ALTAR SERVERS

AND DPO SERVERS

Sunday 8th December after 9.00am mass in front of Sacred Heart Parish Centre

Children will be presenting Christmas action song at the end of mass for the congregation

SACRED HEART PRIMARY SCHOOL CHRISTMAS CAROLS

It is that time of year again when we start thinking and singing Christmas Carols. The Sacred Heart Primary School will hold their Christmas Carols this year in the Seniors Oval (located on the other side of the Presbytery) on Tuesday 26 November at 5:30. It will start with a sausage sizzle. Everyone is welcome.

Watch this space for parking information.

ST JOSEPH'S COMMUNITY GARDEN

Due to diminishing numbers, 2025 will see the last year of the community garden unless numbers increase. Additionally, I am also going to step down from being the coordinator, as a knee injury has forced me to stop doing heavier tasks for the foreseeable future. If you feel you would like the garden to continue and could take on the role of coordinator, or just come along to help out and enjoy some community, please join us on Saturday mornings between 7 and 9 am. As usual it's tools down at 8:30 for morning cuppa. Martin

POPE FRANCIS NOVEMBER PRAYER INTENTION

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE LOST A CHILD

NOVEMBER

"Let us pray that all parents who mourn the loss of a son or daughter find support in their community, and may receive peace of heart from the Spirit of Consolation"

NOVEMBER

The month of November is when we make time to remember those who have passed before us. We pray for those whom we have loved and we pray for those who have loved us. We also remember those who have no one to remember them. There are tealight candles in the gathering room at the entrance of the Sacred Heart Church if you wish to light a candle for loved ones. At Sacred Heart Booval, we hold special sung services on Fridays for these people. The times are as follows:

NOVEMBER SPECIAL SERVICES

Sung Prayers for the Dead at 8:45 on Fridays in November

4th Friday 22.11.24: Prayers for deceased Brothers and Sisters

5th Friday 29.11.24: Prayers for deceased Relatives and Friends

VINNIES CHRISTMAS APPEAL

Watch this space as the St Vincent de Paul's annual Christmas Appeal will commence in the coming weeks. This is where Vinnies will ask for financial aid and/or Christmas items to be donated.

ROSTERS FOR THE CHRISTMAS MASSES

If you are available as a Leader, Reader, Extraordinary Minister of Communion for any of the Christmas Mass services, please inform the office via phone or email. In the coming weeks, there will be a sign-up sheet provided at both churches. We would appreciate this information as the services require a certain amount of planning before school holidays commence.

FROM THE HEART MAGAZINE

For all you budding writers or just those who want to share something interesting, Cathy and Marea are calling for articles and photos to put in our Christmas (and final for 2024) edition of our "From the Heart" magazine. They would like to see reports from all out Ministries, good news, recipes, jokes and riddles, favourite Bibles sections (and why), favourite prayers, memorable moments from 2024 ...

The Ladies would love to get your article!
