

Liturgical Music for The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

ENTRANCE HYMN: Gather Us In

Here in this place new light is streaming,
Now is the darkness vanished away,
See in this space our fears and our dreaming,
Brought here to you in the light of this day.
Gather us in the lost and forsaken,
Gather us in the blind and the lame;
Call to us now, and we shall awaken,
We shall arise at the sound of our name.

Here we will take the wine and the water,
Here we will take the bread of new birth,
Here you shall call your sons and your daughters,
Call us anew to be salt for the earth.
Give us to drink the wine of compassion,
Give us to eat the bread that is you;
Nourish us well, and teach us to fashion
Lives that are holy and hearts that are true.

OFFERTORY HYMN: We Walk By Faith

We walk by faith, and not by sight:
No gracious words we hear
Of him who spoke as none e'er spoke,
But we believe him near.

We may not touch his hands and side,
Nor follow where he trod;
Yet in his promise we rejoice
And cry "My Lord and God!"

Help then, O Lord, our unbelief,
And may our faith abound;
To call on you when you are near,
And seek where you are found:

That when our life of faith is done
In realms of clearer light
We may behold you as you are
In full and endless sight. [Repeat verse 1]

FRACTION RITE:

DURING COMMUNION: Bread of Life

Bread of life, hope of the world,
Jesus Christ, our brother:
Feed us now, give us life,
Lead us to one another.

As we proclaim your death,
As we recall your life,
We remember your promise
To return again.

The bread we break and share
Was scattered once as grain:
Just as now it is gathered
Make your people one.

We eat this living bread,
We drink this saving cup:
Sign of hope in our broken world,
Source of lasting love.

Hold us in unity,
In love for all to see;
That the world may believe in you,
God of all who live.

You are the bread of peace,
You are the wine of joy,
Broken now for your people,
Poured in endless love.

RECESSIONAL: Out of Darkness

Out of darkness God has called us,
Claimed by Christ as God's own people.
Holy nation, royal priesthood,
Walking in God's marv'lous light.

Let us take the words you give,
Strong and faithful words to live.
Words that in our hearts are sown;
Words that bind us as your own.

Let us take the love you give,
That the way of love we live.
Love to bring your people home;
Love to make us all your own.

REFLECTION

The feeding of the five thousand in today's Gospel is one of those anticipatory sharings in the heavenly banquet of the age to come.

We say this feeding is miraculous, and it was. A major part of the miracle is in the transformation of the Twelve. Our Lord did not personally feed the five thousand. He required his followers to get involved in alleviating hunger: 'You give them something to eat,' rather than leaving the crowd to fend for themselves, or resort to market economics. When they shared the food he had blessed, the miracle of the hospitality of God was multiplied throughout the crowd – extravagantly.

And so Our Lord gave his followers and the crowd a real taste of the future generosity of God in the heavenly banquet. But, it would not have happened had the inner groups of disciples not shared Jesus' vision and got involved in what seemed to be an impossible task.

The Last Supper was the greatest anticipatory meal which Our Lord shared with his disciples. And, at Mass, we are eating and drinking the glorified humanity of our Risen Lord Jesus Christ: the life of the future.

We could pause for a moment to identify the myriad of hungers in this world and resolve to fulfil Our Lord's Command: 'You give them something to eat!' So that Divine Generosity might transform human history. © Fr Michael Tate
