SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 20th January, 2019

REFLECTION

This is an extraordinary story – quite unlike any miracle in the synoptic Gospels and quite unlike anything else in John’s Gospel. It is carefully constructed and with John’s deliberate use of his significant terms ‘hour’, ‘sign’, ‘glory’, ‘revealed’ we realise that he is introducing the primary themes he will use in Jesus’ public revelation – except that the revelation here isn’t very public. This event takes place out the back of the feast, in the service area, with the mother of Jesus as the centre of the story. The bridegroom and the wedding guests, while recipients of Jesus’ largesse, know nothing. The only ones in the ‘know’ are the servants and the disciples. So what did they see? The example of the mother of Jesus as disciple. In spite of a sharp rebuke by Jesus, she believes and gives a crucial command of this Gospel: “Do whatever he tells you.” As the Word was made flesh in Jesus, so his words are to be made flesh in obedient actions. That the mother of Jesus is shown as his model disciple is confirmed when she appears at the cross, when the ‘hour’ has come, the ‘signs’ are fulfilled and his ‘glory’ is fully revealed.

So what about that rebuke? This is one of the lines of scripture that has spawned myriad explanations, none fully satisfactory. This is my take on the text. When Jesus rebukes his mother, he is telling her that his life is to be determined by the ‘hour’, the time of the fulfilment of the Father’s plans. Once she realises that, he can then go ahead with the miracle, or not. In a real sense, it is analogous to the times when we pray for things. They will be given, God willing, if they are for our ultimate good. The primary emphasis for us is not whether or not our prayers, demands, are met but rather that we too do whatever Jesus tells us.

The Little King's Movement for the Handicapped Annual Church Appeal will take place at all masses on the weekend of 2nd/3rd February. The Movement was founded in 1968 under the umbrella of the Franciscan Missionaries of Mary. It provides an opportunity for persons with a disability to access a social life, gatherings, and activities to help overcome loneliness and for them to enjoy the advantages of today's world in company, education and acceptance in a friendly atmosphere, all based on Christian values.

A special emphasis is placed on helping parents as well as the disabled with their personal, spiritual and social lives.

Although based on Catholic beliefs, it is ecumenical and all members and people with disabilities are welcomed.

The members of the "The Little King's Movement" commit themselves to bringing to people with disabilities a sense of worth, a sense of being valued and a sense of being loved.

There are no Government subsidies, and most activities are voluntary. ALL ACTIVITIES FOR OUR DISABLED FRIENDS ARE FREE OF CHARGE.

The Church Appeal is one of the major fundraisers for the year. In previous years this Parish has been very generous even in the most difficult financial times, for which the Movement is most grateful.

Time for a Smile -

I guess this is what happens after you've worked at the same place for a while. I was eating at a fast-food restaurant when an employee began his shift by walking into the kitchen area and calling out, "Honey, I'm home!"

Liturgical Music for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Sing Out, Earth and Skies

Come, O God of all the earth:
Come to us, O Righteous One;
Come, and bring our love to birth:
In the glory of your Son.

Sing out, earth and skies!
Sing of the God who loves you!
Raise your joyful cries!
Dance to the life around you!

Come, O God of wind and flame:
Fill the earth with righteousness;
Teach us all to sing your name:
May our lives your love confess.

Come, O Justice, Come, O Peace:
Come and shape our hearts anew;
Come and make oppression cease:
Bring us all to life in you.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son,
our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERTORY

We Are Many Parts

We are many parts,
we are all one body,
And the gifts we have
we are given to share,
May the Spirit of Love
make us One indeed,
One, the Love that we share,
One, our Hope in despair,
One, the Cross that we bear.

God of all, we look to you,
We would be your servants true,
Let us be your love to all the world.

So my pain is pain for you,
In your joy is my joy, too,
All is brought together in the Lord.

All you seekers great and small,
Seek the greatest gift of all,
If you love, then you will know the Lord.

COMMUNION The Summons

Will you come and follow me
If I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
And never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
Will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown
In you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind
If I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
And never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
Should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer pray'r
In you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see
If I but call your name?
Will you set the pris'ners free
And never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean
And do such as this unseen,
And admit to what I mean
In you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide
If I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
And never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found
To reshape the world around,
Through my sight and touch and sound
In you and you in me?

[Instrumental verse]

Lord, your summons echoes true
When you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
And never be the same.
In your company I'll go
Where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
In you and you in me.

RECESSINAL

Lift Up Your Hearts

Lift up your hearts to the Lord,
praise God's gracious mercy!
Sing out your joy to the Lord,
whose love is enduring.

Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth!
Praise the name above all names!
Say to God, "How wondrous your works,
how glorious your name!"

Listen now, all you servants of God,
as I tell of these great works.
Blessed be the Lord of my life,
whose love shall endure!
