REFLECTION

There are two parts to this parable: what happens out on the road and what happens at the inn. The second part addresses a real fear we have when getting involved in another's trouble – how far do we go? At the inn, we see two things in the Samaritan's behaviour. Firstly, he did what was needed and then he went on with his way. His care involved inconvenience and expense, yes, but it did not consume his life. He did not stay around to nurse the man to health, or to hear the man express his appreciation and thanks. No, the Samaritan was his own person. He had his own life to live.

Secondly, he didn't place excessive expectations on the innkeeper. A common trait of 'do-gooders' is to expect others, often at expense to themselves, to join in helping. In contrast, the Samaritan, just because he was caring generously for the injured man, did not expect the innkeeper to do the same. The Samaritan was his own person. He could care without having others confirm his work.

When we prove ourselves to be neighbours to another, it not only involves showing practical compassion towards need. It also means that we are realistic about our own lives. We need to walk away when the job is done.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

This is one of the most misunderstood and poorly celebrated parts of the Mass.

The pattern is:

- ◆ The presider begins by addressing the faithful to draw them into prayer.
- ◆ The intentions are announced by a deacon, cantor or reader. These are an invitation to pray.
- ◆ After each petition there is a period of silence. If there is no silence, then there is no prayer - just a list of statements. The petitions only become the 'Prayer of the Faithful' when the people respond to the invitation and formulate a prayer in their hearts.
- ◆ After a substantial time of silence, the reader gives a cue, such as *Lord, hear us, to bring the assembly's separate prayers to a close with a common response, Lord, hear our prayer.
- ◆ The presider concludes with a prayer in the form of a Collect which sums up the prayer of the assembly.

DIARY DATES

Tuesday	16 July	9.30am	Craft Group
Friday	19 July	9.30am	Christian Meditation

CHURCH RENOVATION UPDATE - The new roof is well and truly under way and hopefully will be completed shortly. The pews in the choir loft have all been removed and taken away for refurbishing. For your safety we will continue to remind you to take extra care when you come to Mass. It would be advisable for you to access the Church through the front doors.

The Tea/Coffee Shop at this year's Fete URGENTLY needs the assistance of parishioners either by way of helping for an hour or so on the day or if you are unable to assist in this way you may be able to help through the preparation of sandwiches, cakes, slices and other food items. Please contact the Parish Office on 3282 1888 or fill in the forms in the foyer of the Church if you can help either on the day or by supplying food. It is important that you fill in the form so we know how much food will be coming in and how many helpers we will have. Please note that all volunteers will need to fill in a sheet and read the Brisbane Catholic Education Code of Conduct which are available at the Parish Office. Your help will be greatly appreciated.

Sacred Heart Parish School Fete 2019 desperately needs donations of homemade baked goods for the Cake and Sweet Stall. All items MUST be labelled with a list of ingredients and if the item/s have been frozen, labels must include an "F" to indicate frozen also dietary info e.g. gluten/dairy free. Baked goods can be dropped at the Amare Centre on Saturday 20th July, 9am-12pm or on fete day BEFORE 10am. For further information please feel free to contact Kate Bradford on 0413 401 882.

Still so much more to do -

- Plants - Succulents in desperate need
- Homemade items for our Arts and Crafts stall
- New items suitable for raffle prizes
- Soft drinks/poppers for drinks stall

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" (Luke 10:37)

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbour. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

A VOCATION VIEW: Treating others with compassion is a mark of a follower of Jesus, whether known as The Good Samaritan, Mother, Priest, Sister, Deacon or Brother. Turn to the Lord in your Need.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION If you have children who are baptised and of Grade 3 age or older you are invited to enrol them to prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation. Preparation will begin with a parent information evening at the Parish Centre on 30th July at 6.30pm with the celebration of the sacrament occurring on Friday 25th October.

NO PARKING

Due to the Parish/School Fete next weekend 20th/21st July there will be no parking available behind the Church.

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020: National Theme for Discernment #4

How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is Humble, Healing and Merciful?

This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who expressed a deep and faith-filled trust in God and a need for lament and healing within the Church, acknowledging the sexual abuse crisis as a turning point for the Church in Australia.

Time for a Smile - A great fitting suit

The fellow was being sold a very cheap suit. "But the left arm is a lot longer than the right arm," he complained. "That's why the suit is such a bargain," the sales clerk explained. "Just cock your left shoulder up a little, like this, and tuck this left lapel under your chin a bit, like this." "But the right leg is way too short," argued the customer. "No problem," the sales clerk answered. "Just keep your right knee bent a little at all times, walk like this, and no one will notice. That's why this suit is only $30." Finally, the fellow bought the suit, cocked his left shoulder into the air, tucked the suit's left lapel under his chin, bent his right knee, and limped out of the store toward his car. Two doctors happened along and noticed him. "Good heavens," the first doctor said to the second, "look at that poor crippled fellow."

The Booval Catholic Parish acknowledge the Jagera, Yuggera and Ugarapul people, the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years.

Liturgical Music for the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE HYMN

All the Ends of the Earth

All the ends of the earth,
All you creatures of the sea,
Lift up your eyes to the wonders of the Lord.

For the Lord of the earth,
the Master of the sea,
Has come with justice for the world.

Break into song at the deeds of the Lord,
The wonders he has done in ev'ry age.

The Lord has made his salvation known,
Faithful to his promises of old.

Let the ends of the earth, let the sea and all it holds make music before our King!

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again
from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

OFFERTORY Whatsoever You Do

Whatsoever you do
to the least of my people, that you do unto me.

When I was hungry, you gave me to eat.
When I was thirsty, you gave me to drink.
Now enter into the home of my Father.

When I was homeless,
you opened your door;
When I was naked, you gave me your coat.
Now enter into the home of my Father.

When I was weary,
you helped me find rest.
When I was anxious,
you calmed all my fears.
Now enter into the home of my Father.

When in a prison, you came to my cell;
When on a sick bed,
you cared for my needs.
Now enter into the home of my Father.

When I was laughed at,
you stood by my side;
When I was happy, you shared in my joy.
Now enter into the home of my Father.

COMMUNION O How Blessed

O how blessed are the poor in spirit,
The kingdom of God is theirs.
O how blessed those who dwell in sorrow,
They surely will be consoled.

Rejoice and be glad,
beloved of the Lord,
the kingdom of heaven is yours.
The first shall be last,
the last shall be first,
for such is the wisdom of God.

O how blessed are the meek and lowly,
For they shall possess the earth.
O how blessed those who thirst for justice,
They surely will have their fill.

O how blessed are the pure of heart,
For they shall behold God's face.
O how blessed those who mend with mercy,
Forgiveness is their reward.

O how blessed those who fight for peace,
The children of God are they.
O how blessed those despised and hated,
Who bear it because of me.

RECESSIONAL We Are Called

Come! Live in the light!
Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord!
We are called to be light for the kingdom
To live in the freedom of the city of God.

We are called to act with justice,
We are called to love tenderly,
We are called to serve one another;
To walk humbly with God!

Sing! Sing a new song!
Sing of that great day when all will be one!
God will reign, and we'll walk with each other as sisters and brothers united in love!

By D. Haas © 1988 - GIA Publications.

prayer for vocations

Loving God,

With one voice we lift up our hearts to thank you today for our lives, our vocation and all your gifts to us.
Inspire us all to know and live our vocation.
Give courage to young people, to listen and follow the call,
to serve you in the Archdiocese as your priests, religious and lay ministers.

Bless us, your family of Brisbane.
Help those you call to listen to what your Holy Spirit is saying to us.
Guide them to serve in your vineyard, that they may fulfill your holy will and make all things new.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen
