

Liturgical Music for the Fifth Sunday of Easter

ENTRANCE HYMN: Sing of the Lord's Goodness

Sing of the Lord's goodness,
Father of all wisdom,
Come to him and bless his name.
Mercy he has shown us,
His love is forever,
Faithful to the end of days.

Come, then all you nations,
Sing of your Lord's goodness,
Melodies of praise and thanks to God.
Ring out the Lord's glory,
Praise him with your music,
Worship him and bless his name.

Power he has wielded,
Honor is his garment
Risen from the snares of death.
His word he has spoken,
One bread he has broken,
New life he now gives to all.

PENITENTIAL RITE: Water Rite

River of Glory

River of glory, springs of our birth,
Flood of God's riches poured on the earth.
We are born from the darkness
And clothed in the light!
We are bathed in the glory of God!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

OFFERTORY: You Are Mine

I will come to you in the silence,
I will lift you from all your fear.
You will hear my voice, I claim you as my choice,
Be still and know I am here

Do not be afraid, I am with you.
I have called you each by name.
Come and follow me, I will bring you home;
I love you and you are mine.

I am hope for all who are hopeless,
I am eyes for all who long to see.
In the shadows of the night, I will be your light,
Come and rest in me.

I am strength for all the despairing,
Healing for the ones who dwell in shame.
All the blind will see, the lame will all run free,
And all will know my name.

I am the Word that leads all to freedom.
I am the peace the world cannot give.
I will call your name, embracing all your pain,
Stand up, now walk, and live!

ACCLAMATION:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord,
and profess your Resurrection
until you come again,
until you come again.

COMMUNION: We Are Many Parts

We are many parts, we are all one body,
And the gifts we have we are given to share,
May the Spirit of Love make us One indeed,
One, the Love that we share,
One, our Hope in despair,
One, the Cross that we bear.

God of all, we look to you,
We would be your servants true,
Let us be your love to all the world.

So my pain is pain for you,
In your joy is my joy, too,
All is brought together in the Lord.

All you seekers great and small,
Seek the greatest gift of all,
If you love, then you will know the Lord.

RECESSIONAL: This Day Was Made By The Lord

This day was made by the Lord,
Let us rejoice, let us be glad.
This day was made by the Lord,
Let us rejoice in salvation!

I thank you, your love is eternal,
You have given me life.
You have given me life.
I will proclaim the wonders you do!

You opened the gates of heaven,
You have given me life.
You have given me life.
I will proclaim the wonders you do!

REFLECTION

The disciples are full of premonitions that their beloved leader was about to be cruelly done to death, leaving them abandoned. Yet he tells them: 'Let not your hearts be troubled.'

Why shouldn't their hearts, our hearts, be troubled by the disappearance of Our Lord's physical presence? The answer is because there is a purpose to his passage through death. It was to bring about a situation where our Risen Lord could share his life in ever more intimate fashion with his followers.

How does this come about?

At every Mass, after the gifts are brought to the altar, I pour a little water into the chalice of wine, saying: 'By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ, who humbled himself to share in our humanity.'

What a powerful verb! By grace, we can participate in the Divine Life of the Risen Lord.

As the Greek saints of the early church used to say in very daring fashion: 'God became human so that humans might become God.'

We anticipate this at every Holy Communion when, as Pope John Paul II used to say: 'We digest, as it were, the secret of the Resurrection.'

We could pause for a moment after Communion to reverence the Divine Life dwelling in us, a truly Holy Communion!

Alleluia! © Fr Michael Tate
