

Liturgical Music for The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

ENTRANCE HYMN: Song of the Body of Christ

We come to share our story,
We come to break the bread,
We come to know our rising
from the dead.

We come as your people,
We come as your own,
United with each other, love finds a home.

You will lead and we shall follow,
You will be the breath of life;
Living water, we are thirsting for your light.

We will live and sing your praises,
"Alleluia" is our song.
May we live in love and peace our whole life long.

OFFERTORY:

By Your Priestly Power, O Risen Lord

By your priestly power, O risen Lord,
All we lost and needed is restored.
God in our communion be adored.

At your hands, Lord, we are fed,
hands that guide and do not falter,
wounded hands that broke the bread
on this altar.

At your hands we seek release
from the evils that assail us,
for we know the Bread of Peace
will not fail us.

In the world that we have known
selfish, loud, vain passions riot;
Lord, with you, with you alone
is deep quiet.

To that world we must return
sharing in its hopes and labour,
bringing to it Christ's concern
for our neighbour.

COMMUNION: Bread of Life

Bread of life, hope of the world,
Jesus Christ, our brother:
Feed us now, give us life,
Lead us to one another.

As we proclaim your death,
As we recall your life,
We remember your promise
To return again.

The bread we break and share
Was scattered once as grain:
Just as now it is gathered
Make your people one.

We eat this living bread,
We drink this saving cup:
Sign of hope in our broken world,
Source of lasting love.

Hold us in unity,
In love for all to see;
That the world may believe in you,
God of all who live.

You are the bread of peace,
You are the wine of joy,
Broken now for your people,
Poured in endless love.

RECESSIONAL: We Walk By Faith

We walk by faith, and not by sight:
No gracious words we hear
Of him who spoke as none e'er spoke,
But we believe him near.

We may not touch his hands and side,
Nor follow where he trod;
Yet in his promise we rejoice
And cry "My Lord and God!"

Help then, O Lord, our unbelief,
And may our faith abound;
To call on you when you are near,
And seek where you are found: [Repeat verse 1]

REFLECTION - I once saw a young mother discreetly breastfeeding her baby during Mass, and thought ... 'What a wonderful thing!' There could not be a better illustration, a better acting out of what Jesus says in today's Gospel: 'The one who eats me will live.'

Of course, even mothers who find they cannot breastfeed offer the same gift for nine months as the baby draws its life from the mother's body in the womb.

This is a good analogy for what Our Lord was teaching in today's Gospel.

'Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me and I in them.' Notice the very maternal language. The risen Lord truly abides in us, we truly abide in the risen Lord. This is as intimate as the baby dwelling in the womb of its mother.

Moreover, it is a Holy communion which is both a present reality and a foretaste and promise about our place in God's future: 'The one who eats this bread will live forever.'

We could pause for a moment to pray with St Thomas Aquinas: 'Oh Sacred Banquet in which Christ is received and a pledge of future glory is given to us.' © Fr Michael Tate
