

Liturgical Music for the Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE HYMN: Come As You Are

Come as you are, that's how I want you.
Come as you are, feel quite at home.
Close to my heart, loved and forgiven;
Come as you are, why stand alone?

I came to call sinners, not just the virtuous.
I came to bring peace, not to condemn.
Each time you fail to live by my promise,
Why do you think I'd love you the less?

Come as you are, that's how I love you.
Come as you are, trust me again.
Nothing can change the love that I bear you.
All will be well, just come as you are.

OFFERTORY HYMN: Hosea

Come back to me with all your heart.
Don't let fear keep us apart.
Trees do bend, though straight and tall;
So must we to others call.

Long have I waited for your coming home
to me and living deeply our new life.

The wilderness will lead you
To your heart where I will speak.
Integrity and justice
With tenderness you shall know.

You shall sleep secure with peace;
Faithfulness will be your joy.

DURING COMMUNION:

Lord We Share in this One True Bread

Lord we share in this one true bread,
By this sign of love may our souls be fed,
Gift of your Son, making us one.
Lord we share in this wine of grace,
In this sign of love may we see your face,
Gift of your Son, making us one.

Lord, we bring you our doubt:
for not trusting you,
For not hearing you, in your mercy forgive.
When we've gone astray from your gentle way,
In your mercy forgive.

Lord, we bring you our strength:
in the work we do
May we follow you to the praise of your name.
Father, make us strong, though the work be long,
To the praise of your name.

Lord, we bring you our faith:
through the gift of prayer
May we learn to share in the love you have giv'n;
Make us steadfast, 'til we come at last
To your kingdom in heav'n.

RECESSIONAL:

Blest Be the Lord

Blest be the Lord; blest be the Lord,
The God of mercy, the God who saves.
I shall not fear the dark of night,
Nor the arrow that flies by day.

He will release me from the nets of all my foes.
He will protect me from their wicked hands.
Beneath the shadow of his wings I will rejoice
To find a dwelling place secure.

I need not shrink before the terrors of the night,
Nor stand alone before the light of day.
No harm shall come to me,
No arrow strike me down, no evil settle in my soul.

REFLECTION

Although the journey toward salvation is initiated by God, and everything that we need on that journey is supplied by God, salvation itself is never forced upon us. If we are to be saved, we must first acknowledge our need. If we are to be forgiven, we must first admit our sin. Then no sin, once admitted, is beyond the forgiveness of God. The corollary to admitting our sin is acknowledging the source of the grace of salvation. We do not earn our salvation. It is granted to us through faith in Christ, which itself is a gift from God.

Here the apparent tension seen in the gospel narrative takes the form of a question: Do we love because we are forgiven or are we forgiven because we first love? We are not forgiven because we love. We are forgiven because we are loved. Repentance may precede forgiveness but even repentance is a grace offered by God.

There is no way that we can repay God for the magnanimous mercy shown to us. However, gratitude is often expressed through service of others. The repentant woman in the gospel narrative was possessed by a desire to serve. Do we realise that the reconciliation with God which we enjoy makes us ambassadors of reconciliation for others? Do we do what we can, give what we have to further the ministry of reconciliation? © Dianne Bergant CSS
