

Liturgical Music for the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE HYMN: Gather Us In

Here in this place new light is streaming,
Now is the darkness vanished away,
See in this space our fears and our dreaming,
Brought here to you in the light of this day.
Gather us in the lost and forsaken,
Gather us in the blind and the lame;
Call to us now, and we shall awaken,
We shall arise at the sound of our name.

Here we will take the wine and the water,
Here we will take the bread of new birth,
Here you shall call your sons and your daughters,
Call us anew to be salt for the earth.
Give us to drink the wine of compassion,
Give us to eat the bread that is you;
Nourish us well, and teach us to fashion
Lives that are holy and hearts that are true.

OFFERTORY HYMN: Be Merciful

Be merciful, be merciful,
Just as God is merciful to you.
Answer evil with good, answer hatred with love.
Be merciful as God is merciful.

As a tender father, God is merciful;
As a loving mother, God is merciful,
Slow to anger, and full of compassion.

Show compassion to the lost and forgotten;
Give comfort to the sick and the dying.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Share your riches with the hungry and homeless,
And advocate for those in prison.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

And, as Jesus taught us, love your enemies,
Do good to the ones who hate you.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Offer blessings to the ones who curse you,
And pray for the ones who abuse you.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Clothe yourselves in love and compassion;
Be forgiving as God has forgiven you.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

DURING COMMUNION: O God, You Search Me

O God, you search me and you know me.
All my thoughts lie open to your gaze.
When I walk or lie down you are before me:
Ever the maker and keeper of my days.

You know my resting and my rising.
You discern my purpose from afar,
And with love everlasting you besiege me:
In ev'ry moment of life or death, you are.

Before a word is on my tongue, Lord,
You have known its meaning through and through.
You are with me beyond my understanding:
God of my present, my past and future, too.

Although your Spirit is upon me,
Still I search for shelter from your light.
There is nowhere on earth I can escape you:
Even the darkness is radiant in your sight.

For you created me and shaped me,
Gave me life within my mother's womb.
For the wonder of who I am I praise you:
Safe in your hands, all creation is made new.

RECESSIONAL: Holy Father, God of Might

Holy Father, God of might,
Throned amid the hosts of light,
Take our life our strength, our love,
King of earth and heav'n above.

Hear the songs your people raise,
Songs of joyful thanks and praise,
Calling all created things
To adore you, King of kings.

Christ, be with us as we go,
Let this blind world see and know,
Burning in our lives, the sight
Of its only saving light.

REFLECTION

Billy Elliott was a boy brought up in a strife-torn mining town in the north of England. He discovered a passion for dancing. At an interview at the Royal Ballet School which was going badly, he was asked: ‘What do you feel when you’re dancing?’

‘I’ve got fire in my body.’ And he got the scholarship because the panel realised that when Billy danced, he became ‘fully alive’: bodymindspirit fully integrated. When Billy danced, everything that Billy was, was dancing.

That is what our Resurrection is all about. Our whole personality will be dancing with the radiance of Divine Fire coursing through our bodymindspirit. The Sadducees’ small-minded sarcasm could not grasp that we will be bodies transfigured, translucent to divine light and energy.

We could take a moment to pray that, by the grace of God, our bodies will dance, inflamed by Divine Love.
